2021 22 Research Support Fund Program

Since2003the ResearchSupportFundProgram(RSF) provides Canadianuniversities and their affiliated research ospitals and institutes with annual funding to help pay for a portion of the hiddenor "indirect" costs of research big institutions incurto support research are not direct costsfor specificresearchprojects. The RSF may be used to covernew expenditures as well as to maintain the current level of services o and support of an institution's research environment, and to generate improvements innovations and efficiencies in its management.

Formore information about the RSFpleasevisit the Government of Canadavebsite and

Descriptionof costsincluded